1. Twist and Shout 🎤 Attend a Pats Game in Style

You and three friends will enjoy a New England Patriots preseason game in style. With these four tickets, you'll not only check out the game, but you'll watch it from the comfort of Gillette Stadium's Putnam Club level. The Putnam Club is an upscale, members only venue that features cathedral ceilings and floor-to-ceiling windows that provide end-zone-to-end-zone views of the field. The Putnam Club opens three hours before the game so you can arrive early, watch some NFL pregame shows, and sample the high-end food and beverages. You may never get to your seats. Go Pats! Preseason game to be determined with donor.

Donor: Helen Brady

2. Come Together 🍷 Great Entertaining with Friends

What better way to entertain than to host a cocktail party in your home for 25 of your friends catered by Concord's own Saltbox Kitchen. Known for refined, yet simple, cooking, Saltbox Kitchen will treat you and your guests in your home to an elegant cocktail party featuring homegrown, locally procured, and artisanal ingredients and classic hors d'oeuvres and cocktails. You get to choose the menu with Chef Ben Elliot. The package includes perfectly paired wines and beer from West Concord Liquors to make a real spectacular evening.

Value: $3,000

Donor: Ben Elliot, Saltbox Kitchen and Chris Saia, West Concord Liquors

3. The Long and Winding Road 🏎️ Drive Like a Winner — Formula One Racer for a Day

Well, not so much a long and winding road as it is an Indy-style banked oval track. You'll don a racing suit and jump into the driver's seat of one of Mario Andretti's Indy-style race cars. Be prepared for the "world's fastest driving experience." You'll have a pre-race meeting with your crew chief, in-car radio communications, and a personal spotter to relay how you're looking. Race for eight minutes, take a pit stop (and let your heart slow down!), then hop in again for an additional eight minutes of track time. Bring your friends and family as you push for your top speed and handle the g-forces. Passing is allowed!

Value: $1,000

Donor: The CCM Racing Team

4. Ticket to Ride 🎮 Fly over Boston and Beyond

"Ticket to Ride" is a bit of a misnomer, because you just can't buy tickets for this. You and one lucky friend will have a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity as you fly over Boston, the seashore, and maybe even Gillette Stadium in either the DirecTV or MetLife Blimp. You'll take off from a local smaller airport (slow moving blimps are not welcome at Logan!), and fly "low and slow" over the landscape. You'll put on the headphone communications system, and quickly become accustomed to the interesting aerodynamics of a helium-filled soft envelope. It is more like sailing on a boat than flying in a plane. Cameras a must!

Value: Once in a lifetime

Donor: Van Wagner Aerial

5. CCM's Lonely Hearts Club Band 🎷 CCM Faculty Concert

Bid on one 90-minute concert on a date you'll mutually agree upon. Must be used within one year.

Value: $2,000, and the unquantifiable "cool" factor.

Donor: CCM Faculty

13. I Feel Fine 🧑‍🍷 Six Superb White Wines

Are you in the mood for some white wine? Here are six bottles—two from each vintage—that will make any evening memorable.

2011 Felsina Isistri Chardonnay Di Toscana, Italy—Straw-yellow color. On the nose characteristics of tropical fruit and peach with pleasant hints of spice and well-integrated vanilla. The palate is full and slightly creamy with an elegant and well-balanced structure to ensure better acidity and a fresh flavor.

2011 Louis Latour Meursault, France—Our Meursault Blanc offers a nice pale yellow color. The nose is complex, with citrus and candied lemon notes and aromas of fresh butter and toasted bread. On the palate, it is well-balanced and reveals fresh hazelnut flavors. A nice mineral tension on the finish.

2011 Mount Eden Vineyards Chardonnay—Mount Eden’s 2011 Chardonnay is simply magnificent. Intense and tightly-coiled from the very first taste, the 2011 pulsates with energy, texture and pure class. Bright citrus, lemon oil, flowers and crushed rocks are all vivid in the glass, but it is the wine’s exceptional balance that stands out most. The long, vibrant finish is a thing of beauty.

Pick your favorite cheese, open up a box of crackers...now what? If you're lucky enough to have these in your wine rack, your decision will be much easier. Six bottles of red wine—two of each vintage—all carefully selected by our expert wine collector, Richard Walters.

2009 Amalie Robert Pinot Noir, Oregon, USA - Light, bright red. Vibrant and sharply focused on the nose, displaying intense red fruit preserve and Asian spice scents along with deeper cola and underbrush nuances that gain strength with air. Sappy, penetrating and pure, with deeply concentrated raspberry and bitter cherry flavors energized by a jolt of blood orange. Powerful yet graceful wine with excellent finishing clarity and persistence and supple tannins that fade into its ample fruit.

2000 Chateau Cantemerle Bordeaux, Haut Medoc, France - Medium ruby. Blackberry, black cherry, toasty oak and musky espresso on the nose. Sweet, dense and pliant, with a layered texture and considerable early appeal. Lush but nicely delineated. Finishes with ripe tannins and lingering flavors of dark berries and espresso.

2010 Pian delle Vigne Brunello Di Montalcino, Italy - Lots of candied-orange, dark-fruit and dried-flower character on the nose. Full body with soft, silky tannins and a chewy finish. Funky and intense. Lots of smoked-meat, berry and dark-chocolate character. Very rich and delicious. Best Brunello from here in a long time. Try in 2016.
